

JOB OPENINGS

The Center for Human Services Research, an organization within the University at Albany, has openings for assistants on a statewide survey of transition-age foster care youths. Assistants will conduct telephone interviews, foster relationships and maintain constant contact with all organizations and people responsible for the care of foster youths, and develop innovative ways to engage youth and other stakeholders.

- Full-time and part-time positions available (minimum 20 hours)
- Open to students and non-students
- Requires some evening and weekend availability
- Positions will run through the summer with the possibility to continue into the next academic year
- Familiarity with Excel required
- Experience with telephone interviewing or phone banking useful but not required
- Must be able to self-manage and maintain strict deadlines
